

Sue Cubbin explains the oral history project to Myra and Red Abbott

Sue: I work at the Essex Sound Archive, which is part of the Essex Record Office.

Red: What a job!

Sue: And they let me do a little bit of interviewing, just to keep me happy. I'm allowed to go out every now and again, just to keep me happy. So what I'm doing is I'm interviewing people about the folk movement. And I think you're number twenty.

Myra: I see, that's great.

Sue: So I'm building up a nice body of information about the folk movement in Essex.

Listen to the interview on Essex Archives Online: SA 30/7/1/20/1